

2019 Los Alamos Teen Center Collaborations

Significant partnerships and collaborator details follow in the chart below.

Los Alamos County: Beginning in 2011, annual contract of approximately $349K to operate Los Alamos Teen Center. Partnered with LAC Parks, Rec & Open Space Division for a variety of teen-related events.
Delle Foundation: Provided funds to cover a part-time administrative support and advertising coordinator.
Los Alamos High School/Los Alamos Public Schools: Los Alamos Public Schools staff and teens worked with the Teen Center on Safe Prom, Safe Homecoming, Senior Appreciation Night and promotion of other special events. LATC Youth Mobilizers and Teen Council have worked with students from the LAHS Leadership class for cross-pollination of ideas and events. Members of the LAHS Tabletop Game club helped host an Intro to Dungeons & Dragons class at the Teen Center.
Juvenile Justice Advisory Board: Funds a variety of events and programs held at the Teen Center. In 2019 JJAB funded Safe Prom, Safe Homecoming, Arts & Resiliency, Youth Mobilizers, as well as funding for various outreach, field trips and member engagement events. JJAB's Youth Resource Specialists also met regularly with teens and parents in private meeting rooms at the Teen Center. LATC staff and teen representatives provide periodic program presentations to the board.
Leadership Los Alamos: George Marsden serves as a co-chair of LLA's Youth Session and helped facilitate the session at the Teen Center facility.
DWI Planning Council: George Marsden is Chair of the DWI Planning Council.
Teen Court: Sent teens to do community service at Teen Center. This was at times teens' first introduction to the Teen Center and offered connections to the Teen Center community and engagement as members even after community service requirements were met.
Kiwanis: Donated food on a weekly basis.
Los Alamos Community Health Council: Members are strong advocates for teen center and connecting to resources. Recent health profile states the importance of having a safe place for teens to associate in our community. Teen Center Director (George Marsden) is a member of the Council. Los Alamos Teen Center hosted monthly meetings of the Youth Resiliency Subcommittee of the CHC.
Los Alamos Community Members: Donated money towards Annual Campaign & ongoing program support. Donated food, art supplies, musical instruments, board games and other in-kind items. Volunteers donated time towards special programs/events.
Aaron's Kids Program: Provides non-perishable lunches to teens in need of a meal. Over 60 lunches plus snack items are dropped off weekly at the teen center, and teens know to ask for them if they are hungry.
PEEC: Teens hosted a video game night at PEEC's Planetarium.
Los Alamos Police Department: Officers hosted a DWI awareness activity with impairment goggles and pedal carts.
PAC 8: Partnered with the Teen Center to connect teens to a teen drinking prevention program creating PSAs for the community. Teens and PAC 8 staff used the Teen Center's recording studio to record original music and voice overs for a variety of PSAs.
CB Fox: Donated in-kind services repairing furniture. Donated seasonal candy.
Senior Appreciation Night partners: The Teen Center hosted SAN committee meetings. Event partners included (but are not limited to) LAC Parks & Rec Division, the Y, the Teen Center, Family Council, LAPD, Atomic City Transit, Kiwanis, LAPS Foundation, and the DWI Planning Council.
Friends of Los Alamos Pride: The Teen Center participated in the second LGBTQ+ PRIDE festival held in Los Alamos. George Marsden, and other LATC staff served on the planning committee for the event. George Marsden currently serves as a founding board member of the organization.
Los Alamos Cooperative Market: Donated food. Currently exploring partnership options for teen cooking classes.
Los Alamos Jazz Project: Hosted the Middle School Jazz Project and out of town teen musicians for a regional event. Exploring other partnership opportunities to host LAMSJP activities with high school musician mentors.
