2020 Los Alamos Teen Center Collaborations

Significant partnerships and collaborator details follow in the chart below.

Los Alamos County: Beginning in 2011, annual contract of approximately $360K to operate Los Alamos Teen Center. Partnered with LAC Parks, Rec & Open Space Division for a variety of teen-related events. Partnered with Mesa Public Library to host a Teen Laser Tag event at the library.
Delle Foundation: Provided funds to cover a part-time administrative support and advertising coordinator.
Los Alamos High School/Los Alamos Public Schools: Los Alamos Public Schools staff partnered with the Teen Center as guests for online Teen Town Hall events. Participation included multiple visits by the Superintendent, High School Principal, and Director of Technology.
Juvenile Justice Advisory Board: Funds a variety of events and programs held at the Teen Center. In 2020 JJAB funded Youth Mobilizers, as well as funding for the long running Arts & Resiliency therapeutic art program. JJAB's Youth Resource Specialists also met regularly with teens and parents in private meeting rooms at the Teen Center. LATC staff and teen representatives provide periodic program presentations to the board. When Teen Center programming moved online during COVID, the YRSs were the first community partners to join the Teen Center Discord server.
Leadership Los Alamos: George Marsden serves as a co-chair of LLA's Youth Session and helped facilitate the session at the Teen Center facility.
DWI Planning Council: George Marsden is Chair of the DWI Planning Council.
Teen Court: Sent teens to do community service at Teen Center. This was at times teens' first introduction to the Teen Center and offered connections to the Teen Center community and engagement as members even after community service requirements were met. Teen Center staff participated in Teen Court referred Restorative Justice Conferences with teens and their families.
Kiwanis: Donated food on a weekly basis.
Los Alamos County Health Council: Members are strong advocates for teen center and connecting to resources. Los Alamos Teen Center hosted monthly meetings of the Youth Resiliency Subcommittee of the LACHC.
Los Alamos Community Members: Donated money towards Annual Campaign & ongoing program support. Donated food, art supplies, musical instruments, board games and other in-kind items. Volunteers donated time towards special programs/events.
Aaron's Kids Program: Provides non-perishable lunches to teens in need of a meal. Over 60 lunches plus snack items are dropped off weekly at the teen center, and teens know to ask for them if they are hungry.
PEEC: Teens hosted a video game night at PEEC's Planetarium.
Friends of Los Alamos Pride: George Marsden, and other LATC staff served on the planning committee for the canceled 2020 Pride Festival. George Marsden currently serves as a founding board member of the organization.
Fuller Lodge Art Center – Collaborated to offer a 5 day, online, Intro to Dungeons & Dragons class during winter break.
Los Alamos Historical Society & Manhattan Project National Historical Park – Teen Center staff collaborated with LAHS and MPNHP staff to produce a series of short videos to be used for a video walking tour of downtown historical sites.
